VOLUME 56 No. 9

FROM THE PASTOR

John 14:6 Jesus said to him (Thomas), "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

"We must be careful about claiming to know God's judgements regarding another religion or the individual human beings that practice it."

As you read the two statements above, what do you see as a difference between them? You might begin with the thought that the first from Jesus sounds pretty exclusive. Jesus saying He is the only one who is the way, He is the truth, and He is the life. He and no one else, past present or future provides what all religions should be the answer to eternal life.

The second seems not to want to commit to knowing how God looks at other religions besides the Christian religion or how God looks at those who practice other religions.

The second statement was recently brought to the national ELCA gathering like our Synodical convention in their seeking a mutual understanding between the ELCA and other religions.

One of the delegates, an attorney, Zachary Johnson had a problem with the statement and was met with an overwhelming smackdown on his wanting to remove that statement from the record. He, in his maximum two minute reason for his wanting to amend the record by removing that statement brought to the floor, pointed to the text of Jesus' response to Thomas. He pointed out that while we should love those who do not believe as Lutherans do, that Jesus is the only way, there is only one way to heaven.

It was brought to a vote and of the 900 delegates there, only 23 voted to support his amendment. These 900 consisted of pastors as well as lay delegates.

At their gathering they had representatives from other religions also, sitting on the stage at the time so some of the negative responses on social media etc. may have been for that reason but he thought to leave the statement in the record would lead many to a false understanding of Jesus and what He came to bring to the world.

The pastors that did contact him on social media didn't address the validity of scripture and if he had it all wrong scripturally but didn't argue or condemn scripture but just saying what he said was horrible and that they couldn't believe he would say what he said using scripture and thought he shouldn't have brought it up.

This lay delegate couldn't let this slide. He wanted it removed as it might get others to believing there is some other way and that other religions other than the Christian religion are just as valid and he didn't believe that we as Christians can't know if God might not include other religions in heaven.

Be prepared to describe to those who have questions as to how we are different than Lutherans from the ELCA. The Bible is the Word of God, it doesn't just contain His Word.

ELDERS ARTICLE

School days are upon us again.

When I go to pickup the grandkids from elementary school, I see various levels of enthusiasm. The kindergarden kids are so excited to be in school, all grown up "just like their older siblings". They are literally bubbling with excitement as they learn new things from their new friend, their teacher.

The first and second graders are not quite "old hands at this school stuff", but they are getting there.

The third and fourth graders have real experiences they can pass on to their younger siblings, if they want to. Remember knowledge is power and they will exercise that power to show how really smart they are, even if they are "faking it."

Now the fifth graders are the real deal, they have a lot of experience under their belts and are truly masters at this "school gig". If you don't think so, just ask them. They are firmly convinced they are the coolest people to grace the halls of that school. They have yet to realize that at the end of school year, when they have to "walk the line," they will face the dreaded middle school, where they will again be at the bottom of the food chain.

One of keys to the successful school experience at all levels is the teacher. The teacher is the one who controls the learning environment and how successful the student can become. The teacher can provide the motivational tools to the students during school hours. These motivational tools must be reinforced by the parents at home. It is the parent's responsibility to provide the love and discipline at home to compliment the teacher's efforts at school.

Likewise is the process of living the Christian life. GOD is the ultimate force in a child's life. HIS intercession from conception to birth brings the child into this world. The HOLY SPIRIT's presence at baptism brings the child into the family of GOD. GOD's motivation of the parents to provide a loving Christian home for the child and cause the child to study the Bible. This study will teach the child that the GRACE of JESUS CHRIST is the only way to salvation..

WE ARE ALL GOD'S CHILDREN, NO MATTER WHAT OUR AGE. HE IS OUR ULTIMATE TEACHER AND GRANTOR OF OUR SALVATION.

Jim Wilkes, Head Elder

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors met on August 15, 2019.

Jim Wilkes, Head Elder, reported that the elders continue reviewing member attendance. They are actively attempting to contact delinquent members to encourage them to return to regular church attendance. They sent letters to members who have moved away but have not requested transfers to another church but received no response. Jim asked the Rocky Mountain District to remove those names from our communicant member rolls.

The Concordia Plan for Pastor's Health and Retirement was discussed. Pastor requested no changes be made. The cost will increase by 2.25% for 2020. Increase in Pastor's housing and salary calculation will remain the same, $\frac{3}{4}$ to housing and $\frac{1}{4}$ to salary. Pastor requested no increase in his auto allowance.

Pastor presented information about BIBLESTICKS (electronic Bibles) for deployed military members. The program is administered by the Base Chaplain. Each stick with earbuds and charger is $25.00. Pastor will give a video presentation about them at a future service. We will request a door offering for their purchase.

The elders asked that they be notified any time you have a need for care, i. e. hospitalized, need transportation, etc.

Vicki Leonard, Financial Secretary, reported total income for April was $17,672.00. Special fund giving totaled $1,226.00 leaving a general fund balance of $16,451.00. Total income for July was $15,352.00. General Fund giving was $14,230.00 and Special Funds giving was $1,587.00.

Robyn Luevano, Treasurer, reported that expenses exceeded income in July by ($2,356.93). General Income was $14,245.00 and Expenses were ($16,601.93). Year to date income (YTD) is $110,905.00 (envelope and loose plate) and YTD expenses are ($112,433.28). YTD we're under budget by ($1,528.28).

Lisa Collins, Evangelism Chair, reported her committee is preparing for the fair. Lisa presented ideas being considered for this year's fair booth. New brochures are being created along with inspirational Scripture verse cards with Trinity's contact information. The committee is also looking using some of the youth games for an activity. There was some discussion about the need for partitions to enclose the booth. A final decision will be forthcoming. The committee will investigate the cost for new Highway signs.

Cindi Anderson, Education Chair, reported: Youth Group - Higher Things Conference - The Higher Things Conference was a success! Fourteen members attended. They met for Matins, Vespers, and Evening Prayer each day. They also attended over 16 breakout sessions on topics that included praying, abortion, exorcism, the Gospels, careers in the church, church music, Generation Z, reading the Bible and many other topics. The plenary speakers were Rev. Duane Bamsh and Dr. Jeffrey Malinson. They both spoke on The Book of Concord and its origins and continuing relevance. They had several fun activities for the kids each night. They played 9 square, participated in the talent show, tagged the Vicar, created chalk art, played mini golf, played volleyball and found the prize in an escape room. They were also able to visit Disney Land. It was a great trip! There is a Higher Things Conference in Ft Collins, CO next summer. They are considering attending this conference. Summer Youth Group - The summer youth group was very successful this year. There were 15 individuals in the older group and nine in the younger group. Sunday School and confirmation - Jill Clark ordered Enduring Faith Sunday School material from Concordia. Jill is teaching Sunday School for the younger grades and Stacy Johnson and Cindi Anderson are teaching the middle/high school class.

Bob Thede, Trustee Chair, reported that a new sign has been placed in the existing frame in front of the church. This was provided by the Gene Humphrey memorial. The organ tuner is still expected sometime near the end of Sept. The Reverse Osmosis system that the LWML requested has been obtained and installed in the church kitchen. We also replaced the faucets and the sprayer on the sink along the south wall of the kitchen. The fire department conducted their annual inspection of the church. We passed their requirements. A fire extinguisher inspector showed up unannounced to do the annual inspection of out fire extinguishers. Three of the extinguishers need to be replaced. There is no cost to replace them. The fire suppression system in the kitchen still needs to be inspected.

Unfinished Business: Due to problems with losing internet connection we are checking out switching to TBTC vs Century Link for phone/internet service.

New Business: Bob Klose handed out information about upcoming BOD officer nominations. We will elect a congregation secretary, treasurer, stewardship chair, trustee chair and two elders. Please prayerfully consider accepting a nomination if asked to fill one of these very important officer positions.

Bob Klose handed out a budget worksheet to begin the process of setting a church budget for next year.

Bob Klose,
President

CONGREGATION MEETING NOVEMBER 10, 2019

The Board of Directors (BOD) has selected November 10th as the date for the annual congregational meeting. The purpose of the meeting, as directed by the Constitution and By-Laws of Trinity, is to elect officers to the BOD, approve a budget for next year, nominate individuals as delegates to Synod offices, and conduct any other business brought up by congregation members.

This year we will be electing BOD members for the following: congregation secretary, treasurer, stewardship chair, trustee chair and two elders. Please prayerfully consider serving in one of these positions. Let myself, Bob Thede, or Susan Weitzel know if you are willing to serve.

Our By-laws state that there should be one elder for every fifty confirmed members. We currently have a full slate of five elders. This year three positions are to be elected.

Romans 12:1-2 ¹I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship ²Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

I appeal to you also brothers and sisters, please come forward and agree to serve.

Bob Klose,
Congregation President

HYMN OF THE MONTH

“LOVE DIVINE, ALL LOVES EXCELLING

His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him Who call us by glory and virtue. 2 Peter 1:3 (NKJV)

After their marriage, Charles and Sally Wesley set up housekeeping in Bristol, England, heading up the Methodist activities there. Later they moved to London so Charles could work more closely with his brother, John. All the while, however, he was writing hymns. There are few stories behind specific hymns because Charles was just always writing them. He didn't need events to inspire him or quiet stretches of meditative time in which to develop his thoughts. He was just always writing hymns, and afterward he had few if any dramatic stories to tell about the occasions for writing them.

Biographer Arnold Dallimore says about his poetry: “He had inherited this gift from his father and although it had undoubtedly been resident in him since childhood, his conversion unlocked it and set it free. During [his] early ministry he says little in his journal about his composing hymns and, indeed, this is true throughout his life. But he had within him virtually a treasury of poetry. He constantly experienced the emotions of the true poet, his mind instinctively, invested words with harmony, and hymn after hymn flowed from his pen.

Henry Moore, one of his friends, later described Charles like this: “When he was nearly eighty he rode a little horse, gray with age....Even in the height of summer he was dressed in his winter clothes. As he jogged leisurely along, he jotted down any thought that struck him. He kept a card in his pocket for this purpose, on which he wrote his hymn in shorthand. Not infrequently he had come to our house in City Road, and having left the pony in front, he would enter, crying out, ‘Pen and ink!’ These being supplied he wrote the hymn he had been composing.”

How many hymns did Wesley compose? No one has been able to count them. In all, Charles wrote over nine thousand literary texts of one kind or another, but not all of them should be classified as hymns. Experts put the number somewhere between three thousand and six thousand. Among all of them, “Love Divine, All Love Excelling” is the favorite of many.

Charles's last hymn was dictated to his beloved Sally as he was on his deathbed, in March, 1788. It was short, simple and picturesque. Predictably, it too, became a popular one-verse song among Methodists:

In age and feebleness extreme, / Who shall a helpless worm redeem?

Jesus, my hope Thou art, / Strength of my failing flesh and heart,

Oh, could I catch a smile from Thee / And drop into eternity!

*“Then Sings My Soul”, Book 2,
150 of the World's Greatest Hymn Stories,
Robert J. Morgan*

LWML MISSION SERVICE QUILTERS

Thursday, September 5, 2019 at 9:00 AM the Mission Service Quilters will begin a new year of sewing and tying quilts. The quilts vary in size from baby quilts and lap robes to bed quilts. The quilts are donated to various places, including; Ysleta Lutheran Mission in El Paso, LOVE I.N.C. here in Alamogordo, and the maternity ward at Gerald Champion Regional Medical Center.

How can you help? How about donating your time by attending the quilting sessions on the first and third Thursdays of the month? Don't have the time, how about donating your gently used flat sheets for the quilters to use as quilt backs? How about helping with items for the layettes that are put together for the maternity ward? We especially need, newborn to 3 month shirts/onesies, sleepers, and jackets. Gently used clothing is fine. When you shop in thrift shops or garage sales, check out the baby clothes.

If you want more information about this mission, ask one of the quilters, Cheryl Richey, Darlene Gilmore, Bev VanDuyn, Margaret Worley, or Nora Sotak.

OTERO COUNTY FAIR

The Otero County Fair booth is an annual event that we at Trinity use as outreach. The more the merrier when it comes to manning (or womanning) the booth but it's also a necessity to have at least one person there the entire time the exhibit hall is open. There is a sign up sheet on the bulletin board in the Narthex. Please sign up to represent our church and our faith for all of Otero County! Questions? Email Lisa Collins: lightheartedlibrarianlisa@gmail.com

TRINITY LUTHERAN TELLERS

A big Thank You to those who volunteered to become tellers on Sunday mornings! We welcome Susan Weitzel, Susan Kelly, Patty Quinn, Becky Worley and Dick Dommers.

Also, I would like to extend a Thank You to Bob Klose for typing up detailed teller instructions and training our new tellers. Bob continues to update the procedure as changes occur. This is a big help to me because I had only been a teller for a short time before taking over the duties of Financial Secretary.

I am currently in the process of updating the teller schedules and will have a draft in your mailbox by Sunday, September 1st. Take a look at it. If you see any immediate changes I need to make due to your being out of town or work obligations, let me know and I will fix the schedule and send out a final by the next Sunday.

Please feel free to call Vicki (921-8602) if you have any questions or talk to me after church on Sundays. We have a couple of special deposits and so you may wonder how to record those.

Just a couple of Rules of Thumb: Always use pencil when you record on the Tally sheets and double check the totals. If you have anything you might be unsure of, put a sticky note on the tally sheet so I can be looking out for it when I do my report which is usually on Tuesday mornings.

Thanks again to my new tellers and to the ongoing team!

Vicki Leonard, Financial Secretary

A VETERAN'S POEM

He was getting old and paunchy
And his hair was falling fast,
And he sat around the Legion,
Telling Stories of the past.

Of a war that he once fought in
And the deeds that he had done,
In his exploits with his buddies;
They were heroes, every one.

And 'tho sometimes to his neighbors
His tales became a joke
All his buddies listened quietly
For they knew where of he spoke.

But we'll hear his tales no longer,
For ol' Joe has passed away,
And the world's a little poorer
For a Veteran died today.

He won't be mourned by many,
Just his children and his wife.
For he lived an ordinary,
Very quiet sort of life.

He held a job and raised a family,
Going quietly on his way;
And the world won't note his passing,
'Tho a Veteran died today.

When politicians leave this earth,
Their bodies lie in state,
While thousands note their passing,
And proclaim that they were great.

Papers tell of their life stories
From the time that they were young.
But the passing of a Veteran
Goes unnoticed, and unsung.

Is the greatest contribution
To the welfare of our land,
Some jerk who breaks his promise
And cons his fellow man.

Or the ordinary fellow
Who in times of war and strife,

Goes off to serve his country
And offers up his life?

The politician's stipend
And the style in which he lives
Are often disproportionate
To the service the he gives.

While the ordinary Veteran,
Who offered up his all,
Is paid off with a medal
And perhaps a pension, small.

It is not the politicians
With their compromise and ploys,
Who won for us the freedom
That our country now enjoys.

Should you find yourself in danger,
With your enemies at hand,
Would you really want some cop-out,
With his ever-waffling stand?

O would you want a Veteran
His home, his country, his kin,
Just a common Veteran
Who would fight until the end.

He was just a common Veteran,
And his ranks are growing thin,
But his presence should remind us
We may need his likes again.

For when countries are in conflict,
We find the Veteran's part,
Is to clean up all the troubles
That the politicians start.

If we cannot do him honor
While he's here to hear the praise,
Then at least let's give him homage
At the ending of his days.

Perhaps just a simple headline in the paper
That might say:
'OUR COUNTRY IS IN MOURNING,
A VETERAN DIED TODAY.'

A Huge Thank you to All who helped make this years Rummage Sale a Success! - Thank you!!! Thank you !!! $1,650 was raised, making it possible to send $165 to six missions (Southern NM Outreach, Concordia Theological Seminary Food Banks (St. Louis & Ft. Wayne), Orphan Grain Train, COPE, and Ysleta Youth Ministry (Marachis).

A Special Thank You to the Two Dedicated ladies (You know who you are) that worked 4 hours EVE-RY morning and again on Saturday. Without them we wouldn't have been ready.

There has been some discussion that due to loss of dedicated LWML Members to age, health, & death, and lack of help, that the Annual Rummage Sale may no longer be feasible. This endeavor has helped raise the most funds in the least time, and the six missions will be the ones to suffer....Raising funds for Missions has always been LWMLs primary function.

2019-2021 National Mission Grant 1 – Water and the Word for Rural Schools in Kenya- Evangelical Lutheran Church, Kenya $80,000

In 2008, a man from Nebraska traveling in East Africa saw the need for clean water and sought a way to help. Through contact with a social worker and educator in Nakuru, Kenya, he devised a system of installing water harvesting equipment (rain gutters and tanks), filters, hand washing stations and clean water storage to be installed in schools in Kenya. In 2016, members of The Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod from Nebraska took over the management of the project. They visit Kenya every year, traveling to schools assessing their water needs. Teams from the United States install rain gutters and tanks for storage. Hand washing stations and clean water “buckets’ are placed in every classroom. They teach personal hygiene, handwashing and the importance of drinking only clean water. WASH clubs, made up of students and staff, are formed to be responsible for the clean water program. The grant will help the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Kenya (ELCK) to extend their ministry of Word and Sacrament by expanding the clean water project for their schools and orphanages.

2019-2021 National Mission Grant 2 - Teach Me Too – Preschoolers with Learning Needs in Austin, TX—Lutheran Special Education Ministries $100,000

Lutheran Special Education Ministries (LSEM) has seen a growing desire for early intervention support of children with learning needs. In 1976 LSEM began serving children with special learning needs in the Detroit area and has since expanded programs and services to include a presence in Lutheran schools nationwide. Their pilot program is Let It Shine Academy at Bethany Lutheran Church, Austin, Texas. The Teach Me Too program was designed to administer intervention strategies, address the unique needs of children with autism spectrum disorder and other unique needs such as hyperactivity issues, decreased or delayed social skills, developmental or speech delays, sensory integration difficulties, or other learning differences. As a resource for families, this program provides assessments, consultations, and materials to help children on an individual basis. This grant would help fund Teach Me Too, expand the Let It Shine Academy, provide teacher training, and offer scholarship funding for children whose families cannot afford the cost of the Let It Shine

Rocky Mountain District LWML Grants for 2018-2020 ($ 55,514 has been raised YTD toward the $82,314)

Messiah Lutheran Campus Ministry at Colorado Mesa University - Grant Amount: $6,000.

The Lutheran Church and School of Messiah (LCSM) is the only LCMS presence in a valley population of 149,000 (nearest LCMS congregation is 65 miles away.) LCSM has recognized the need for outreach to nearby students of Colorado Mesa University (CMU) through a campus ministry. They would use the LCSM facility for student gatherings and a place to study. Bible studies would be offered there as well as on the CMU campus. Messiah is in the process to call an assistant pastor, whose partial ministry duties will be campus ministry. The grant would cover some of the operating costs of $6500/year and the additional Wi-Fi needed for student use.

Fostering Faith in the Forest - Grant Amount: $5,000.

Lutheran Valley Retreat has for many years served youth at summer camps, offering week long experiences "in nature." Some weeks are specifically reserved for children in foster care and their chaperones. They receive love and attention and learn of Jesus' saving grace during this time at camp. A week of camp for one child, which includes food, counselors, horse rides, and basic utilities normally operates with a cost of $350. Many times a one-on-one encounter from a loving counselor helps a child through a traumatizing period, as the love of Jesus is shared. The grant would allow fourteen to twenty (14 -20) children from foster families with limited income to have a week of camp.

LWML On The Go, is available through your podcast provider, at lwml.org, and on the LWML App.

Yvonne Steeby, LWM President

SAVE THE DATE - Saturday, Sept. 14, 10a.m.

Ladies come join in Bible Study & Fellowship at LWMLs 1st meeting of this year. Alendars will be available for this years planned activities. Belinda & Yvonne will be providing refreshments.

Any questions? Contact Yvonne, Susan, Belinda, Bev or Cyndi H.

The Rio Grande Zone of the LWML will soon be holding its Fall Rally. New officers (Secretary and Vice President) will need to be elected at that meeting for a 2-year term. Please prayerfully consider whether you or someone in your LWML group would be willing to fill one of those positions. The time commitment is minimal. Feel free to forward this to other members of your local LWML group.

HOME AT LAST

"We are all God's children
From the morning time of birth;
He lets us live and love and laugh
And have our time on earth.
And when at last our time
On earth is done,
One by one, with a gentle voice,
He calls His loved ones home.
